

Parents and Kids: Safely Explore, Discover and Learn in the WILD

“Direct Experience in Nature Is Critical...”¹

The Wilderness Integrated Learning and Development program (WILD) is for kids ages 7-11 who want to spend more time playing and learning in the great outdoors. (Parents are welcome)

We offer a time and space in a beautiful forest setting for unstructured play and guided experiential learning.

Fall Program 2016, cost 30.00 per child for six sessions

The time and dates of our fall program are as follow:

Sundays 1-4 PM

September 11

September 25

October 9

October 23

November 6

November 20

WILD is sponsored by the Williams Community Forest Project.

Contact Cheryl at 541-846-1729 or info@williamscommunityforestproject.com for further information

¹ Children & Nature Network Research and Studies - Volume One February 2007